

February 22, 2011

Los Angeles, California

William "Bill" Crawford, the founder of Crawford & Bangs, was awarded the prestigious Flaig Award by the Construction Subsection of the Los Angeles County Bar. This award is made each year to recognize achievement and professionalism in the practice of construction law. Bill is a long-time supporter of the practice of construction law in Southern California. He is the senior founding partner of the well-respected construction law boutique, Crawford & Bangs. Bill is also known for his mentoring of younger construction lawyers, his incredible activity in construction industry organizations and his booming voice. A colleague of Bill's noted that he is considered one of the great construction lawyers of our community, ever enthusiastic and humorous. The Flaig Award was presented to Bill by his long-time firm partner, Shaaron Bangs. The entire staff of Crawford & Bangs attended the presentation to celebrate the honor of this prestigious award.